

Society Contests to Begin April 13

The Orator and Essayist Must Be Chosen Feb. 17, Debators
Before March 10

The inter-society contests will be held April 13, 14, 15. The societies should begin NOW to get ready for them. Each member should read carefully the rules and regulations regarding the contests and make sure of a complete understanding. Let each society president note carefully the dates which must be observed in elimination contests.

They will consist of five different phases of work; debates, orations, declamations, essays and extemporaneous speaking. Any member of a society may enter any one of the contests, excepting those in which he has at some previous time won first place.

Each society should have two teams for the debates. The preliminaries must be held not later than March 10. Each speaker will be allowed twelve minutes to present his argument and five minutes for refutation. The subjects for the debates have been chosen as follows: "Resolved: That Ireland should be granted unqualified independence from Great Britain."

"Resolved: That the Chinese Exclusion Act should be extended to include the Japanese."

"Resolved: That the policy of the open shop is better than the policy of the closed shops."

One orator will represent each society and must be chosen Feb. 17. He is to select his own topic although he may obtain advice from the faculty of the English department if he desires. The maximum number of words will be 2,000, only 200 quoted words being allowed. Three type written copies of the oration must be submitted to the English department on or before March 28. The oration will be graded according to these points: material 60 per cent, organization 20 per cent and fluency 20 per cent.

Each society should choose one essayist by February 17. The essayists may be eliminated by the society in any manner they decide upon. The essay is to be original with not more than 3,000 nor less than 1,500 words. The same rule as in the oration applies to quoted words. Three type written copies must be submitted by March 28. The subject of the essay must be, "Rural Education in Missouri."

The extemporaneous speaker should study the general topics, which are: "League of Nations for Peace,"

The Advanced Students of French Gave "Une Reception Francaise"
Friday, January 21

The students of the Advanced French Course 61b of the State Teachers College with their instructor, Miss Blanch Dow, gave a unique and interesting reception at the College Friday afternoon, Jan. 21. Invitations were issued early in the week to other students in the department and to President Richardson, Mr. Foster, Miss MacLeod, Miss Winn, Miss Brunner, Miss DeLuce, Miss Arnett, and Miss Anthony.

The ladies parlor was decorated with plants, the stars and stripes, and the French tri-color. In the receiving line were Miss Dow, Esther Foley, Jeannie Blacklock, Josephine Grimes, Ellen Mitchell, Mildred Shinabarger, and John Phipps. During the reception French records were played on the victrola. A short program had been arranged over which John Phipps presided as master of ceremonies. In French he welcomed the guests and invited them to rise and join with their hosts in singing the Marseillaise. Jeannie Blacklock gave a very interesting account of the life and career of Guynemer, the French Ace; and Faye Townsend delighted the guests with a vocal solo, "Emplumez le Nid." All conversation during the afternoon was in French.

A luncheon consisting of fruit salad, Pickles, sandwiches, and hot chocolate was served by the class.

The purpose of this club is to foster the furtherance of athletics and more good sportsmanship in this college.

The "M" club had charge of the assembly Tuesday.

Girls Basket Ball.

Friday, Jan. 21, a practice game between the Maryville High School girls and the college girls was played. At the end of the first half the score was 4-5 for the college, at the end of the game the score was 10-10. It was then necessary to play until a score of two points was made, which was won by the high school girls.

Children of Demonstration School...
Will Give Elson Art Picture
Exhibit Feb. 16-19.

The Elson Art Picture Exhibit will be shown by the children of the Demonstration School, February 16 to 19. The exhibit has a two fold purpose; first to acquaint townspeople, teachers, students and children with good pictures and second to use proceeds of exhibit to secure school room pictures.

It is to be held on the first floor of the college building. Miss DeLuce, who knows this exhibit and knows pictures, has kindly consented to give a number of talks to groups interested in the pictures.

Several of the woman's clubs of the city will see the exhibit in a body.

The contract which the children have with the company involves the sale of tickets to defray expenses and to provide for a picture fund.

Students of the college will be solicited by the children of the demonstration school to help make this exhibit a success. The price of admission is twenty-five cents to students and fifteen cents for children. One twenty-five cent ticket will admit the student as often as he wishes to see the pictures. Catalogues explaining the pictures will be sold for five cents each.

The exhibit comes here from Lathrop, Missouri. A group of the pictures was exhibited in the Robidoux School of St. Joseph, last week. In all there are two hundred pictures in the exhibit.

Bearcats Lose to Cardinals 35-24

William Jewell Wins Close Game
By Rapid Work On Floor
In Last Minutes

The Bear Cats lost a hard fought game last Friday night to the William Jewell Cardinals by the score of 35-24. The score, however, is not indicative of the style of the game. On the contrary it was anybody's game until the last ten minutes. Then Jewell took a winning spurt and caged the required points.

The game was fast and was a fight from the start tho the Bear Cats made 5 before Jewell scored. Then the two teams seesawed back and forth and at the end of the first half the score was 16-15 in favor of the visitors.

Both teams passed well but many shots were missed. Kidney for the locals played stellar ball but was extremely unlucky. Kirby led the team in regard to points, making three field goals and six free goals. For the visitors McAdoo starred and Newman played exceptionally well. Dow, brother of our French instructor played good clean ball and had it not been for him our score would undoubtedly have been larger.

The line up was:

Maryville.

	F. G.	FG.
Houchens, f.	3	0
Kirby, f.	3	6
Kidney, c.	2	0
Wells, g.	1	0
Sawyers, g.	0	0

William Jewell

	F. G.	FG.
Conway, f.	2	3
McAdoo, f.	8	0
Newman, c.	4	0
Dow, g.	2	0
Warren, g.	0	0

In the second half Turner was substituted for Sawyers, Sawyers for Wells and Wells again went in for Sawyers.

Miller of Missouri University was the referee.

The pep at the game was not what it should have been; a few faithful ones were yelling but their yelling was not co-ordinate. All students should sit on the first floor where they can follow the directions of the yell leaders and the leaders should divide the sections. Decide what yells to give and then all work together like clockwork. The next pep meeting should be held in the gymnasium where rooters will be.

Old Man Winter Has No Terrors for S. T. C.

Sixteen cars of coal, enough to make almost a trainload of coal has been purchased this winter to keep S. T. C. students warm. Eight cars have already been used but we still have eight more which will furnish heat to supply our needs for the present year.

The past few days have been busy ones for the men at the power house for they have just completed the unloading of six cars that have been on the siding. If the students passing down the walk by the power house will notice the coal bin, they will see how several carloads of coal look piled up ready for use.

"Boost your Home Products" might be the motto of the College in the purchase of coal, for our coal is obtained in our own state from Kirksville. It is purchased from the Big Creek Coal Company. This coal gives good results where steam heat is used. It is screened before shipping, coming to us in large chunks and free from slack.

Each car of coal contains about fifty tons or enough for about eight average size families. Two men working steadily can unload a car in about four hours. From five to nine tons are burned a day depending on the weather, the average daily rate being about seven tons.

Sometime in the future when you are going to the College to meet your eight o'clock class, the thermometer at that time hovering around the zero mark and the wind coming down the long walk to meet you at about four times the rate that you are going to meet it, just remember that someone has been firing at the power house beginning their work at five o'clock, making the building comfortable for your benefit when you arrive at the College.

Students who anxiously watched from the east window of the building last winter and who hoped, not that another car load would soon be in, but that we might as a result of delay get a few days vacation will find it necessary this winter to turn their attention to other lines of activity.

Hessian Fly Threatens Nodaway Wheat

According to the Department of Entomology of the college of Agriculture, University of Missouri, Nodaway County is likely to suffer an infestation of Hessian Fly next fall. The report is based on a Hessian Fly test which the University has carried on at the school farm of the Maryville State Teachers College.

Wheat was planted at different dates and the data here given were taken by J. R. Horton of the Bureau of Entomology of the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

The date of planting and infestations were Sept. 4, with 16.1 per cent infested; Sept. 21, with 3.1 per cent infested; Sept. 28, with 2.6 per cent infested; Oct. 1, with 1.7 per cent infested; Oct. 4, and 11 had none.

This is the first infestation about Maryville in six years and the probabilities are if conditions remain favorable the infestation will be severe next fall.

In our next issue methods of combating the Hessian Fly will be discussed.

Library Adds New Encyclopedias.

The Encyclopedia Americana, a set of encyclopedias consisting of thirty volumes has been added to the library. This is published by the Scientific American.

Our latest set of encyclopedias before this war was the New International, published in 1914.

One valuable addition is the classified index in which the articles are grouped in such a way that it is easy for the student to find material on almost any subject.

Subjects are designed in major divisions with subheads covering different departments. The classified index is somewhat new in the arrangements of material and method used but is very practical and simple, making it easy for the student to secure much information on various subjects.

Miss Nina Streeter, formerly head of the Home Economy department in the Warrensburg State Teachers College, writes Miss Arnett of her work in Chicago, where she is connected with the Bureau of Nutrition Service, Central Division American Red Cross.

This division has supervision of five states.

Miss Streeter, who serves with the Red Cross is permanently connected with the American Red Cross.

Assembly Notes.

Mr. Swinehart gave a talk on the "Literature of the Bible" touching briefly on its historical value, in Assembly Tuesday morning.

His talk centered around the history of the Israelites under the leadership of Moses, Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Joseph and Daniel.

The narrative is featured in the stories of Joseph and the fall of Jericho. The dancing and rejoicing of the children of Israel after crossing the Red Sea embodies the Lyric. Oratory is found in the farewell messages of Moses to the chosen ones that are to be led into the promised land.

Following the regular announcements at the conclusion of Mr. Swinehart's talk we were convinced that we have a YELL LEADER par excellence in our midst and his appeal to the student body for a "pep" demonstration resulted in some boisterous yelling by the student body and "jumping around" faculty members. Leston Webb was the only one whose pep merited a citation by the Commander but with an assurance of a sympathetic faculty "the next day after the night before" we can expect many citations at our future pep meetings.

A new song that is full of pep and requires pep to sing was sung by its composer, Mr. Kutschinski. It bids fair to become our most popular college song.

Notes of the Men's Meeting

Dr. Hobbs gave a talk at the men's meeting Wednesday January 26, at 10 o'clock. This is the second of a series of lectures that Dr. Hobbs is giving to the men of the school.

Following this talk the new school song composed by Mr. Kutschinski was memorized and sung, by the boys present. This song is to be used at the game Friday night.

Following are the words:

Come on Bearcats! Pep! Pep! Pep!

Fight! defend our name

Put some fight in every step.

We must win this game

Good old team of husky men, rah,

rah,

We're proud of you.

Chorus.

Score! score! we want to see you

score

Score! Score! We want to see you

score

We want to see our score run up

Then run it up some more

Oh, come on! Come on! Come on!

Oh, come on Maryville.

Words and music by C. D. Kutschinski

Ada Beckmon, a former student, teaching in a rural school near Weatherby, Mo., writes that her school is pleased with the vitalized rural life. She is introducing the one dish hot lunch.

Miss McGruder of Maryland Visits Nodaway County Schools.

Miss Mary McGruder of Montgomery County, Maryland visited the rural schools of Nodaway county, Jan. 25. She was accompanied by Supt. Cooper and Miss Mildred Miller. She was studying the work taught thru Vitalized Rural Life.

Extension Class Organized At Stanberry.

Mr. Cook organized an extension class in American History at Stanberry Saturday, Jan. 22. The class was made up of seven members, among whom are Thelma Morris, Amelia Maderia and Blanch Sweet, former students of S. T. C.

Mr. Cook reports this trip to Stanberry as being his first visit to that place in fourteen years. He was teaching in the Normal at Stanberry when it burned. He also met one of his old schoolmates from there.

THE GREEN AND WHITE COURIER

The Stroller.

Dear Stroller:

Your remarks of last week have caused so much inquiry that I feel you should give this explanation to your readers.

I was reared in the atmosphere of a southern plantation and one of the delights of my childhood was to go to the negro cabins to listen to their tales of "hants." It was there that I learned the theory of chicken stealing.

Yours truly,
Miss Winn.

The Stroller was glad to receive this note and she thinks a poor explanation is better than none. But he wonders yet if "chicken stealing" was only a theory at that party; anyway the seniors had better explain why they are taking lessons even in the theory.

Olivette Godsey has been accused so much of being the Stroller that for her comfort, the Stroller wishes to say that he is not Olivette.

Mr. Foster is known to have said something in his current history class the other day that can not be put in print. But he has the sympathy of the Stroller, because some in that class would drive a man not only to strong words but to strong drink if he could get it.

"Nobody loves a fat man"—ask Anna Mae.

The Stroller wonders why Harry Price is getting to be such a good Methodist; he attends church regularly and also spends a great deal of his time at the Methodist parsonage.

The Stroller is sorry he did not hide in the journalism room before class Thursday for he understands that he might have given the school some rare wit and humor of a very acute kind. In fact gibes flew back and forth so rapidly that the instructor was moved to remark that the class must have gotten up on the wrong side of the bed, so the Stroller was told by one of the class.

"Community Cooperation" and "Industrial Warfare." Each speaker will draw first a general topic, then a subtopic under that, from which he will speak five minutes without notes. He will also be given one hour to prepare his speech.

The preliminaries for the speaking may be given at any time convenient to the society.

The declamation is not to exceed twelve minutes and should be as near that limit as possible. The title and nature of the declamation is to be determined by the individual reader. The contestants for the declamations must be eliminated by March 28.

The time is drawing near when the inter-collegiate contests will be held. There are nine debaters from which to select a team. These will be divided into three groups. Group one will debate against group two February 7. The winning group will match group three February 14, arguing the opposite side of the question. The four receiving the highest scores will debate in chapel Tuesday, February 22. This will determine the S. T. C. team which will debate at Cameron April 8, on the following subject: "Resolved: That the federal government should establish a permanent court of compulsory arbitration embodying the principles of the Kansas Law on the settlement of labor disputes in public service utilities." The Maryville team will discuss the affirmative.

It is not known yet just how many will enter the oratorical preliminaries to be held in chapel March 8. The winning contestant will deliver the same oration at Cape Girardeau, March 25.

come accustomed to the conditions that face them at a game.

The team takes another trip this week, playing Missouri Wesleyan and Culver-Stockton.

LET'S GET SOME PEP, GANG! PUT THE OLD SCHOOL ON THE MAP. DON'T BLAME THE TEAM FOR THE DEFEAT FRIDAY, BLAME YOURSELVES. LET'S DON'T LET IT HAPPEN AGAIN.

Y. W. C. A.

The program given last week at the regular weekly meeting of the Y. W. C. A. was as follows:

Devotional Leader, Jesse Murphy
Violin Solo Maude Kibbe
Reading Donna Hinkle
Talk Miss Mable Arnett

The theme of Miss Arnett's talk was "The Eternal Feminine." She discussed the various types of women and classified them under four heads (1) The Miriam, (2) The mother, (3) the militant, (4) the political.

Miss Arnett told of her favorite heroines in history, from the Bible, from prose and poetry, and from the present time. Three things are essential in a woman's anatomy—A jawbone, a wishbone, and a backbone for she must have the power to talk, to wish, and to will, said Miss Arnett. She begged the girls to be not only wishers but willers.

Miss Arnett also explained the Children's Code and told how it was accomplished.

The talk was inspiring and was appreciated by the Y. W. girls.

Miss Mildred Miller went to her home at Sumner, Mo., for the week end Jan. 28-30.

Miss Ernestine Dow, Miss Marjorie Reed, and Mr. John Dow, of Liberty, Mo., were the week end guests of Miss Dow and Miss DeLuce Jan. 28-30.

Songs and Yells Practiced at Two Meetings

The "pep" assembly held Thursday afternoon was full of action and PEP. The quality was good and everyone had to absorb it. There was no alternative.

Miss Helwig gave a talk emphasizing the school spirit in the games and support of the team. Miss Winn spoke of the value of a good yell for a school. She informed us that a prize of a season ticket to the games for the year would be given to the person writing the best yell. Mr. Rice gave a "short" talk on the "Eccentricity of Mars."

Yells and songs were practiced before speeches, between speeches and after speeches.

A meeting of the students was held Friday at 2:20 in the auditorium. The purpose of this meeting was to engender pep into the soul of each and every person in S. T. C. Thru the earnest and picturesque efforts of our walking foghorn and yell leader, William Mapel, yells, shrieks and whistles of every hue and kind were extracted from lusty throats of each patriot of S. T. C.

Short, to-the-point speeches were made by Mr. Cook, Miss Dow, Mr. Rice, Charles Wells and Merle Selee. The keynote of each was we want to win the game from Jewell.

The orchestra furnished the accompaniment to the new song and every follower of the standard of the Bear Cats sang the inspiring words with all of his heart.

Departmental Notes.

Manual Arts.

The work in mechanical drawing should be more interesting with the addition of the new drawing desk. All phases of work in secondary and college mechanical drawing will be offered next quarter. Much praise should be given the students in mechanical drawing for their work this quarter. They made the floor plans for all improvements which are under way in the department.

The course in wood turning has been very popular this quarter. The work turned out by the students could be favorably compared with the commercial products. They have turned out mahogany and walnut candlesticks and table lamps, parts for kiddie cars, ax handles, besides doing work for students in other departments.

Education.

The Principles class have started work on a new textbook,—"Course in Principles of Education," which they will study the rest of the term. The first part of the terms work has been largely lecture and library work.

The class in Rural Management is now studying Wilkinson's text on Rural school Management. Their work has been up to this time a study of the school laws of Missouri and their relation to the rural schools.

The school Economy Class is studying magazines and pamphlets relating to school laws and school legislation. The importance of the different bills as studied and emphasized. This makes the Class a sort of current education class for the time congress and the State Legislature are in session.

Commerce.

A course in business finance will be offered in the commercial department next quarter. This will cover fundamentals of financial management, organizing business for financing, how different types of stocks and bonds are used, promotion and combination of established enterprises, methods of security issues, managing the finances of going concerns, the use of bank and trade credit, handling financial involvements and reorganizations. It will help develop an organized grasp of financing methods which cannot but add to the ability of anyone who expects to be a business man.

There is to be a course offered in marketing which will take up the fundamental principles in the marketing of agriculture products. It begins by pointing out the place that marketing occupies in the general field of economics, and by applying accepted economic principles, to the marketing process. It then explains the general organization and methods of marketing, beginning with marketing at country points, and passes on to a description of the methods and functions of the various classes of whole sale dealers. After descriptions of the various classes of whole sale dealers. After description of the factors affecting the cost of marketing, illustrated by data concerning the marketing of certain products, special problems are treated, such as price quotations, future trading, inspections and grading, public markets, cooperative marketing etc.

These subjects will be of Sophomore rank and under special grant freshman may take them. Certainly no one can make a mistake in taking either or both of these subjects. If you wish further information see Mr. Griffin.

Tuesday evening the Chamber of Commerce met at the College in the Gymnasium for their regular weekly class in Physical Education. Their usual program at these meetings consists of calisthenics for an hour; then games of volley ball and basket ball are played.

In volley ball the team of Martin Lewis who had a hundred per cent record was beaten by Fred Newlon's team.

The meetings are well attended and anyone who does not attend will find it well worth their while to join the group.

Margie Moore spent Saturday and Sunday Jan. 29-30 with her parents at Stanberry.
